COLLEGE OF ARTS AND LETTERS MICROGRANTS
Criteria for Application
2017-2018

Type of Award: Grants of up to $500

Who is Eligible: College of Arts and Letter’s tenured and tenure-track faculty

Preference: Faculty who have not received an award in the last cycle of Microgrants

Purpose: CAL Microgrants are small awards available to help defray expenses incurred for research assistance, fieldwork, equipment, travel to collections, and other types of items not covered by other university, college, or departmental sources. Travel to conferences to present papers is not funded under this category.

PLEASE NOTE: All equipment purchases, even if only partially funded with Microgrant funds, will belong to SDSU.

Instructions: Microgrant proposals should not exceed 800 words, including bibliographies and appendices. Proposals must include a timeline and explanation of how funds will be used. Detailed budgets should accompany all applications which involve monetary expenditures.

When: Microgrants are awarded in the fall and spring semesters. Deadline for submitting applications for Spring 2018 is Friday, February 23. Please submit 9 copies of the proposal with a brief curriculum vitae attached to each copy to Bart Chafe in the Dean’s Office, AL 600.

TIMELINE: Fall awards must be expended by June 30, 2018.
Spring awards must be expended by December 31, 2018.
